NSC BRIEFING

21 October 1954

SITUATION IN SOUTH VIETNAM

- I. Diem's position growing extremely weak as crisis prolonged; his government may collapse at any time.
 - A. Ely has revived Tam's candidacy for premiership.
 - B. French acting high commissioner who has been strongly pro-Diem says premier's prestige reduced to zero; suggests Diem's brother, Luyen, as suitable successor.
 - C. Heath sees these views as indicating extent of deterioration in Diem's position.
- II. Raphael-Leygues, Mendes-France's advisor on Indochina, sees only hope as government of sects led by Prince Buu Hoi.
 - A. Leygues plan would involve ouster
